Dear Sassafras ....

Can't say success is like a safety pin
Though ya seldom have either when ya need 'em
Success pricks harder when ya don't have it!

In this the passing of Warren's 25th anniversary year we, with the seniors of '49, have discovered silver and now are looking forward toward the horizon of the 50th year. Let us hope that the underclassmen will go on to discover gold. Gold is a precious metal but valuable things can only be had by those who strive diligently to be rewarded by them. This year's gifts of silver express partially that diligence through accomplishment which, of course, is necessary to reach the ultimate goal of success.

We shall dedicate this book, Sasse -- our travel log, to an unheralded lady whose thoughtfulness and tireless effort has contributed greatly to Warren's efficiency. Yes, we have made a wise choice in presenting this annual in the honor of Mrs. C. E. Eash, wife of the school's principal.

It was a 'mighty fine journey we took through Warren all right. (I can confide in you.) I never have seen so many things goin' on in one spot before in my life.

. . . . . It was a fall day, September 7, (remember?) that we loaded our supplies and set out for the trail ahead. By September 20 we really had begun our livelihood. All the organizations and clubs were completing their plans, and schedules for the year's coming activities were being compiled.

Miss Kathleen Hergt, director of vocal music, announced the members of the Madrigal on this date, too. I can see those youngsters now ..... all of 'em could warble like birds.

After that first week things began poppin' like nobody's business. By September 27 it had been announced that the Warren Owl had been awarded International First Place of the Quill and Scroll for the year of '47-'48, the seniors were sprucin" up to have their pictures taken; comprehensive exams were over, and the mighty Warriors had romped away with the first football event of the year, the Southport game 18-0.

It was on a Monday, October 4, that news was flying of the senior play. I nearly laughed myself sick the night of November 18 sitting there in the front row watching old 'Herb' Gage as he stepped on the stage to write his novel and then nearly have a nervous breakdown when all the confusion started. ('Course I suppose Mrs. Lola Pence did, too, trying to direct all those senior cutups!) The plot centered around a deed that had a 'they can live here any time clause' in it and believe me 'they', the Rockwoods, certainly took advantage of that clause. I was mighty happy though when the Gage's and Rockwood's barn turned out to be the solution to their problem. Yes sireee ..... some play all right!

The week of the eleventh kept us jumpin' too! On Monday the Alpha Hi-Y and the Warrenettes met to discuss committees for the coming autumn dance. Tuesday, Yolanda Berry had been announced as the high salesman of the magazine sales campaign, and a tea was given for all mothers of new students. Wednesday, Warren's cross country boys decided to show off a little so they carried off the honors in the county meet at Ben Davis. The scores were Warren 32, Ben Davis 42, and Lawrence Central 46. By Friday everyone was more than tuckered out but just the same six weeks exams were given and passed for the most part with flying colors.

The "Autumn Whirl" was the next event that had us standing on our heads. (In fact we were standing on our hands backwards with the decorations.) Taking a quick trip into town I managed to get a pair of those fancy saddles and a reindeer sweater. Wednesday, Thursday and Friday saw us getting ready for the dance and dreaming about it clear up to the night of the 29th.

It wasn't long before we had to take another one of those trips into town though, Sasse. This time it was to get one of those two gallon hats so we wouldn't be out of style at the first school political party meeting. Remember those four parties that ran? There were the Americans, the Federalists, the Internationalists and the Nationalists. By Friday, the fifth, we discovered that we were travelin' along with a real live senator. Purdue Legislature was certainly honored with the presence of that fine upstanding quartette of Shoemaker, Johnson, Willian and White.

Along with all our fun, though, we had to stop once in a while for that fine thing that is as hard to get along without as water on a dry desert -- education. On November 8 we helped to observe National Education Week by attending a convocation, presented by the Sunshine Club. It seems that every week was dedicated to something and so we weren't too surprised when November 15 rolled around to mark National Book Week.

By December 3 it was again time to have a little fun. Borrowing one of those monkey suits I decided it was high time that you and I did some fancy stepping to the "Sno-Flake Frolic". Dances or no dances though, the boys were plowing right through with a very good basketball season the whole time. On December 17, for instance, we thumped Decatur 60-32. Mighty fine boys those Warriors -- mighty fine.

January found us doing more than ever. Semester exams lurked in the future and on Monday, the third, we got off to a busy start. All through the month we found that club meetings, scholarship tests, and other activities kept us so busy that we hardly knew whether we were coming or going. The County Tourney was a heartbreaker but I guess that will be one goal that is left for the future.

It certainly was a relief when March the fourth popped up its head. "The Gold Digger's Drag" was the event and, believe me, I didn't have to go a beggin' for glad rags. They chose Dot Shepard as Miss 49'er and my old friend Walt Curran was the Mr.

The days seem to be passing on and things are still happening so fast that you can't shake a stick at them. Now that the year has come to a close with a 'whoppin' production, a dance and a thousand and one other things it seems just a bit sad to close this book and settle back and take it easy. It's been fun -- traveling I mean, just you and I and all our Warrior friends. Now it's time to say goodbye and though we are reluctant to round the bend and travel on into the lives of others, we can remember Warren Central High School as a friendly place where all travelers are welcomed.

..... Goodnight now, Sasse, and I hope that through you others may see that the quietest beings make the truest friends.

-- The 49'er

FOR TODAY, FOR TOMORROW
—FOREVER WARREN

As a shrine to Wisdom SHE was designed for Youth
With cornerstones of Courage upheld by nature's truth.
Foundation built of Knowledge, by Faith cemented strong
SHE stands a glorious symbol of the ancient scholar's song.
Beyond the elevation of the steps laid down by man
HER halls spread forth in triumph as only HER halls can!
Traditions mark the silver threads among the gold which shine;
Traditions made by youthful minds along a youthful line.
But for Today SHE constitutes for future youth a plan,
Conceived so that by careful thought 'tis for the good of man.
Thus in the dawn that rises for Tomorrow may SHE see Improvements and revisements, HER plans made perfectly!

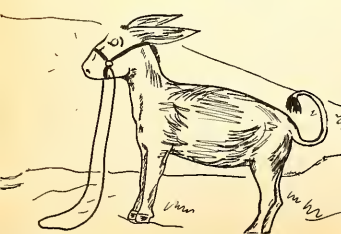
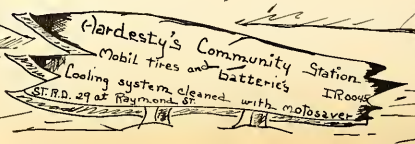
But as we close HER portals
Let us not be sad - forlorn
As long as SHE doth stand ereet
SHE is . . . . . .
FOREVER WARREN

Seen a lotta changes in my times, usta call 'em half-horses
Now 'taint ete'kitt less ya say mules!





Our Traditions are Many -

Twenty-five years have passed at Warren, and looking back through the years one discovers many factors aiding in its development.

It was in the year of 1925 that the students of Cumberland and Shadeland schools moved into the present building. Nineteen twenty-six saw the school receiving the name "Warriors."

Three teachers have been with the faculty since Warren's founding -- Mr. C. E. Eash, principal; Mrs. Myrtle Rodden, vice-principal; and Mr. Walter Mowrey, athletic director. Through their tireless efforts Warren is today a school outstanding in its varied activities and events.

The present dean of boys, Mr. Fred Rodebeck, joined Warren in 1929. In the year of 1933, economics and government were begun for the seniors who had taken one year of history previously.

Four tennis courts were erected in 1935 and the football field plans were begun. Football came to Warren in the fall of 1937 with Mr. Thomas Stirling as the first coach. The new science laboratory was completed.

The school first contacted Mr. Harold McDonald concerning painting the murals for the library. Miss Mary Schaid was the first sponsor of the Sunbeam Organization which held its first meeting on October 28, 1939. In 1941 the Madrigal Singers were organized.

It was in 1942 that Warren won the coveted honor of being awarded membership in the North Central Association. The Owl Staff received their "Roost" from Mr. Eash in 1944. Nineteen-forty-nine saw the new clocks and bell system and the twenty-fifth anniversary edition of the Warren Owl.

This briefly is the history of your Warren Central High School since its founding a quarter of a century ago.

MUCH HAVE THEY ACCOMPLISHED.

The members of the administrative staff have a comprehensive background of professional training and experience. Their guidance and foresight have greatly helped in making our school the fine school it is today.

Mr. C. E. Eash, principal, is a graduate of Indiana University. His undergraduate major subject was German. He received his master's degree in education. He served as president of the junior class, captain of the track team and was elected business manager of the Indiana Daily Student. He has taken special work in a number of middle west and eastern colleges. Mr. Eash has taken an active part in state educational activities, serving as president of the Indiana Schoolmen's Club, secretary-treasurer of the Indiana Secondary School Principals Association, member of Teacher Training Committee and Educational Review Committee. At the 1949 annual meeting of the North Central Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges he was elected to the Commission.

In civic affairs he is active in Y.M.C.A. and Boy Scout activities. He is a member of the East Side Kiwanis Club and of Phi Delta Kappa.

Mrs. Myrtle Rodden, dean of girls and vice-principal, was already a sophomore at Indiana State Teachers College at the age of sixteen. During her undergraduate years at Indiana State she worked in the office of the dean and received much valuable experience for the position she holds today. She has her master's degree from Indiana University and has attended a number of colleges and universities. Mrs. Rodden has taught the past five summers in guidance conferences at Butler University and has participated in many other guidance conferences and workshops. She has served as President of the Indiana Deans Association, chairman of the Education and Vocation Committee of the Indianapolis Business and Professional Women's Organization. She has served as a member of the Y.W.C.A. board for three years and recently was elected to the presidency of Delta Kappa Gamma, a national honorary professional organization.

Mr. Fred Rodebeck, dean of boys and vice-principal, is an alumnus of Canterbury College. He holds a B.S. degree from Purdue and has attended Indiana and Butler. He has participated in guidance conferences and workshops at Purdue and Butler. In his work as dean of boys Mr. Rodebeck makes many direct home contacts and frequently paves the way for a better understanding between the home, pupil and school.

Mr. Rodebeck is in charge of the buying for the cafeteria.

Mrs. Leon Deer has general charge of the school office. Twelve pupil assistance, Nancy Lentz, Billie Alger, Donna Thompson, Anita Folkening, Joan Wray, Ruth Collins, Delores Gumberts, Bertha Crawley, Catherine Collins, Marie Duke, Miriam Dorrell and Carolyn West act as messengers and assist in the office functions for the school.

Mrs. Alma Taylor, school health nurse, serves on the school health committee and attends in many ways to the health interests of the student body.

Warren High School now has thirty-eight teachers, besides the three administrators. All are college graduates and many have received higher degrees. In the hope of contributing to a better America in the future, these people have devoted their lives to teaching. In addition to instructing regular classes each day, most of the members of the faculty have extra-curricular activities and interests which are mentioned here and elsewhere in the annual.

Mr. Walter Mowrey sponsors the track team and Future Farmers of America. A very good looking gentleman, Mr. Ralph Clevenger, with a true philosophy for living, coaches the basketball team. Mr. Vaughn Wood is football coach. Mr. Paul Payne, a new teacher this year with a rare sense of humor, comes to us from Kirklin High School. He handles the reserve basketball squad, and is sponsor of the newly organized baseball team. Miss Marjorie Forsyth was sponsor of the all school production and with humorous wise-cracking made the affair an outstanding school event.

The G.A.A. is sponsored by Mrs. Edna Hurst, a new teacher also. Mr. Paul Hamilton, sponsor of the orchestra, is among those teachers who should be highly commended for work in the music field this year as should Mr. Cecil Havens, conductor of the band, and Miss Kathleen Hergt, vocal instructor.

THE FUTURE WILL SEE . . .

We, the members of the senior class of nineteen hundred and forty nine, desire to will the following things, material and immaterial, to all the members of the junior class in the hope they will benefit from them as we, who are not to be here next year, have benefited in our four years as students. These things which we give to you were handed to us from preceding classes; hand them on.

May you, in your last year at Warren Central, be active in those affairs which will give you a wealth of knowledge, not only book knowledge, but also that which is essential for you to live with other people and to be happy. Learn, for only those who learn can benefit. Be happy, for happiness is the golden link between mortals and their mortal brothers. Yes, if we can leave you nothing else, may we bequeath you the desire to learn and the ability to be happy. With these in your possession, the world is at your feet.

Also the annual events remain, only one of each, for you to cherish and remember. Gone for us is the fun of the football games. The larger majority of our fall nights was spent cheering our team. This team was composed of so many boys who played their last game for us that October evening when they held Howe's fine team to a scoreless tie. That we will never forget for they did that for us. Never again, no never, will the names of that great football team appear on the Warren Central roster.

There is only one County tourney for you, too. Our tourney will live in the hearts of all for many years to come. Out at Butler that night were ten bitterly disappointed boys; swell boys, whose chances for a county title faded in those few seconds it took that Speedway player to score two points. It was a wonderful tourney for the Warren Central Seniors but even more wonderful for the seniors of that west-side school. This team's hopes at the sectionals were wiped out quickly in the first game. The dances will come and go all too speedily, but they will go. The plays, concerts, and music contests are the things you will enjoy in 1949 and 1950, these are the things you must enjoy.

We have willed to you our proudest possessions, those possessions which have been the substance of our lives. Now we are to be gone, and you juniors will soon realize the importance of such seemingly small moments of fun. Bear no malice toward your fellowmen in the coming nine months for there is no time to make enemies. There is only time now to strive to be remembered. These things we have willed to you, pass them on to those who follow . . . . .

. . . AND MAY THEY FIND GOLD

There's a pot of gold at the end of the rainbow
But who wants to walk that fer?

Yep! Even them Seniors have from airyplanes

Lets always remember Those swell times with the gang...

What's this? Sailors with a yen for wings in No. 1? They are Don Wilson, Don Bokerman, Dale Johnson, and George Groenert. Skiing seems to be the sport our "outdoor girls" - Marlene Fischer and Thalia Schulz, in No. 2 - Charity Birnell is enjoying a breath of fresh air between classes in No. 3. The group of girls gathered at "ye olde well of Warren" in No. 4 are Fern Dorrel, Dot Shepherd, Barbara Ping, Marjorie Perkins, and Lila La Mere. Bill Deer, Nancy Lentz, and Don Jackson are the dressed up trio in No. 5. What's the occasion kids?? Jeanine Rairdon in No. 6. My goodness, playing with toys at your age!

"When other friendships have been forgot, ours will still be hot"

Sylvia Merrill, Donna Barksdale, Marlene Aichorn, Lila La Mere, Gloria Mc Gahan, and Helen Glende are the daring gals in No. 7. Barbara McLellan, Judy Githens, Pat McCurdy, (2nd row) Pat Bernhart, Jeanine Rairdon, Marilyn Endicott, and Shirley Dickinson are the girls in No. 8. Keith Bobenmoyer and Lila LaMere in No. 9. Barbara McLellan and Pat McCurdy are the glamour girls sitting on the car fenders in No. 10. Barbara Frakes, Lola Brady, (2nd row) Evelyn Morris, Phyllis Miller and Rosie Lichtenberg are the bathing beauties in No. 11. Going boating, girls? Marianne Presley is the smiling face in No. 12. In No. 13 Keith Bobenmoyer is the muscleman. "Going my way?" Teny Bader and Norma Bohannon want to know in No. 14. Marlene Fischer feels gay in No. 15. Maybe it's Spring!

THE JOURNEY IS YET BEFORE THEM—

"In the young children of today lies the hope of tomorrow".

This statement which comes from the lips of national leaders the world over is a sign that in this young generation, in you, the youngsters of today, is the key to an almost insolvable equation. It is to you that the generation which follows you may live to see the fulfillment of better tomorrow so that the compatability of all peoples on earth.

In Warren, young underclassmen supply this hopeful seed for the future. Ranging from the thirteen year old seventh grader to the wiser and older juniors each and everyone is achieving and expressing himself in many different ways.

Those newest additions to our student body, the seventh graders, have done themselves proud in their first year at Warren. Talent shows and various other activities have marked the initial step in the high school whirl of these future upperclassmen. Soon these girls and boys will be well into the social scene but now they are content to wait to be the graduates of 1954. Let us help them to remember to have as much fun and do as well for the following five years as they have in '49.

The next rung on Warren's high school ladder is the eighth graders. They too have been a very active class.

Many years from now the alumni of Warren will look back upon past events and remember when Darlene Dicks was awarded a gold key for her entry in the Scholastic Art Awards Contest held March 15.

Under the direction of Miss Cleo Kinnison, co-sponsor of the eighth grade group, the four sections have participated in spelling contests each Monday.

Mr. Roland Sprunger, the other sponsor, was quite active with the Junior Hi-Y group this year. It was composed of eighth graders.

'With charity to all' might well be the creed of this young class. At Christmas time the sponsors organized a party. All students of the class brought gifts which were contributed to an elderly lady who was hard of hearing.

"David Copperfield", the annual freshman play, was the outstanding accomplishment of the ninth-grade students of Warren Central. The rest of their high school career will pass quickly so they must make the most of their remaining teen-age years. All these freshmen have had but a small taste of what lies ahead for them as they proceed to be sophomores, to juniors and to the ultimate goal -- their senior year. This will be their final honor, the glory of 1952.

The sophomore entered his second year with the knowledge that he is no longer the lowest rung of the high school ladder. He raises his head with a new pride and confidence surges over him. People must know of his new rank and he sets out to inform them. Broadcasting far and wide his new position in boisterous tones, he makes himself known to all.

The sophomore has made himself appreciated and valuable to his school by many small projects in his home rooms. The Junior Honor Society, which is composed largely of sophomores, has made an album to send to Germany about Community and school. The class has had its leaders in many departments of the school throughout the year. It is noteworthy that they, as the sophomore classes before, have contributed much to the school.

As the sophomores advance toward the next step of the high school ladder, the seniors fondly wish them luck in future years to come, and salute them for the contributions they have already made.

Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Myrtle Rodden and Mr. Ralph Clevenger, a vocational guidance conference was held on March 24. All sophomore and junior students attended the conference on their chosen vocations. Representatives from each of these vocations spoke to the students in order to present them with some idea of the requirements for their future jobs.

Mrs. Lola Pence directed the junior play, "A Case of Springtime," and members of the cast were Larry Crosley, Don Jackson, Joyce Hancock, Martha Katzenberger, Joe Hilton, Mary Lou Teague, Billie Alger, Frank Tardy, Emerson Finch, Jean Stites, John Shaffer, Bob Klise, Phyllis Rosell, June Bloom, Janet Oakley, and Barbara Gale.

The Warren Owl staff claimed twelve juniors who also worked with the seniors in preparing this year's Wigwam.

Maxine Gibson, junior, also walked off with an award for the junior class this year.

Whoa, Sasse here we're at the Classes-

Warren's classrooms have been bee hives of industry this year. In the music department, the Girl's Concert Club was organized by Miss Kathleen Hergt.

Mrs. Dona Bowers' art classes have also been active with contests and exercising artistic desires.

The various mathematics classes of the school have, as in other years, toiled through seeming problems of difficulty.

The photography class has assisted in taking countless pictures for the school, under the direction of Mr. George Keever.

A new teacher, Mr. John Porter, taught machine shop this year.

By constant drill toward perfection, Miss Lokile Hicks, commerce teacher, hopes to benefit and suit her students for later business as well as personal life.

Where readin', 'ritin', and 'rithmetic git in harness.

Speaking of girls, the home economics department has numerous activities credited to its name. Mrs. Anna Stricker, Mrs. Wanda Beeson, and Miss H. Bixler, a new teacher this year, are the instructors.

Mr. Herman Nolte, the instructor for the two year old driving course, believes that women make fine drivers if properly trained.

In the picture below is seen that even fist fighting can be fun when properly done.

Hear 'em Sassafras? Thet Band and Orchestra

...Kin shore "step up" any Kind o' tune!

The Senior Band this year provided real marching music at home football games. Members were also present at all the basketball games, giving forth with colorful music.

Three concerts were given- Fall, Mid-Winter, and Spring. A program of "Concert-Echoes" was given for the student body, after the Fall Concert.

Many bandsmen won first division honors in the District, State, and All-State Solo and Ensemble Contests.

Sweet voices of the Choir and Madrigal

The choir has presented several concerts this year, as well as their own production, "The Warren Follies", and participating in the County Choral Festival.

Miss Kathleen Hergt's Madrigal Singers were highly honored when Dr. Fabien Sevitsky, director of the Indianapolis Symphony, invited them to sing with the orchestra on March 25.

sooth my achin' bones.

Warren's orchestra has in the past year provided music for various school activities. There were several soloists and ensembles which won high ratings in District, State, and All-State Music Contests. One of these was the String Trio which played other engagements throughout the year including an appearance with the Teen Symphonetta.

The Alpha Hi-Y has fellas that I'm rite proud t' Know.

"Clean Speech, Clean Sports, Clean Scholarship, and Clean Living" is the motto of the Alpha Hi-Y. Through active participation of fair and clean club work the group strives ardently to keep this creed alive and active.

Mr. Ralph Clevenger was sponsor of the club, George Ostheimer, president; Bill Deer, vice-president; Lloyd White, secretary; and John Wright, treasurer.

A weiner roast was the first activity of the Alpha Hi-Y last fall. Other events in which this group participated were the "Autumn Whirl", the "Gold Digger's Drag", an Easter program, and various religious programs throughout the year.

The outstanding activity of the club was a Father and Son Banquet held in April.

For the first time in its history the Alpha Hi-Y sponsored a dance entirely on its own. The name was the "Sno-Flake Frolic" and it was held on December 18.

The Sunbeams are the eighth grade girls, the younger sisters of the Sunshine Society. They, too, present convocations during the year and groom their members to become Warrenettes. Miss Cleo Kinnison is the teacher sponsor.

The Honor Societies at Warren are built on the principles of scholarship, leadership, character, and service.

The Senior Honor Society, sponsored by Mr. Fred Pierpont, was, at the beginning of this year, composed of nine seniors. These were (left to right) Helen Glende, John Wright, Bill Deer, George Ostheimer, Effiemae Bottema, Donna Barksdale, Betty Dammrich, Sylvia Merrill, and Gloria McGahan.

and Future Homemakers, they're ready for 'im.

The members of the Warren Chapter of the Future Homemakers of America were inducted by the Southport Chapter in October, 1948. Mrs. Wanda Beeson is sponsor. Although this club is a new organization this year, it has participated in many activities. The "Feather Hop", first dance presented by this group and given in the cafeteria, was quite successful. The girls also installed the officers of the Ben Davis Homemakers Club.

The International Honorary Quill and Scroll Society was founded in the high schools of the world to promote interest in journalism. Membership is based upon scholarship, leadership, service, and quality of writing. Mr. Clyde Nice, journalism advisor for the school, is sponsor.

This year Warren's chapter gave an informal dance after the Speedway basketball game. Having such a large attendance, it was quoted as being the first dance of its kind to be a success. A public relations banquet is sponsored each year to honor all organizations, agencies, and institutions cooperating with Warren in educational activities. Mr. William A. Evans was speaker at the dinner this year on April 8 in the school cafeteria.

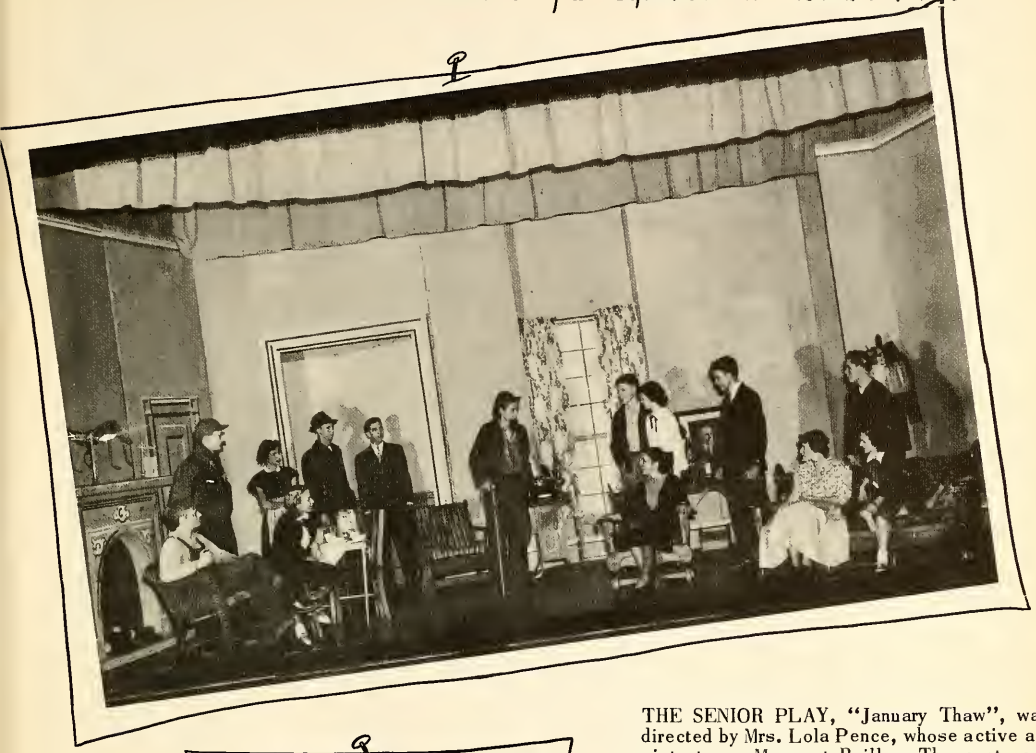
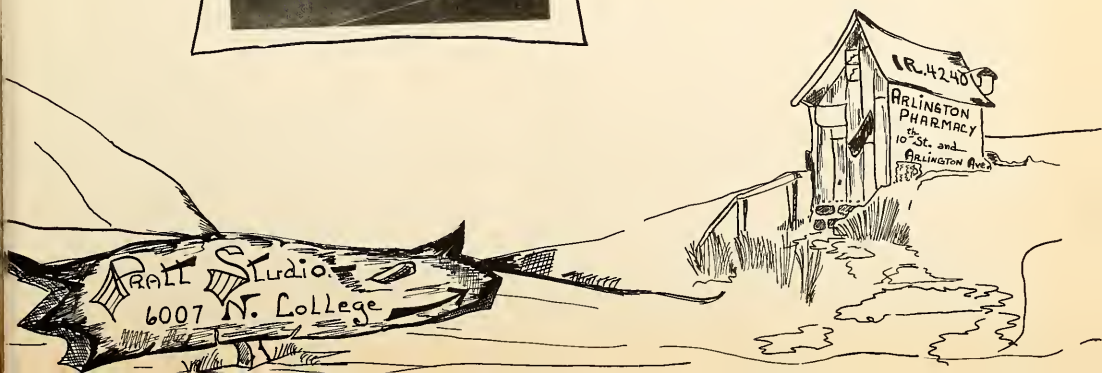
Make belivin' seems real, Sasse, when those Seniors git t'gether fer some fun!



THE SENIOR PLAY, "January Thaw", was directed by Mrs. Lola Pence, whose active assistant was Margaret Reilly. The cast members were: Eunice Cochran (Marge Gage), Gerald Shoemaker (Herbert Gage), Nancy Lentz (Mathilda Rockwood), Robert Walker (Jonathan Rockwood), Sylvia Merrill (Barbara Gage), Jeanne Duncan (Sarah Gage), Ray Laffin (Matt Rockwood), Barbara Frakes (Paula Gage), Ralph Morris (Uncle Walter), Donna Barksdale (Frieda) and Dale Johnson, Pat Riggins and Lloyd White.



Ah! Sasse! Remember that night of the "Autumn Whirl?"

The Autumn Whirl was the big event of the football season, as it was the dance honoring all the members of the football team. It was a girl-ask-boy affair and many students of other schools were among those who attended. Decorations were composed of a dummy as the center piece which denoted the schools the Warren football squad had defeated, added to crepe paper streamers and cardboard figures which completed the fall theme.

The Christmas dance, the Sno-Flake Frolic, skipped by without having its picture taken. This was the one dance of the year sponsored wholly by the Hi-Y and was the first formal dance of the 1948-49 school year.

But, March 4 wuz my night! — the "Gold-diggers' Drag"

Dorothy Shepard and Walt Curran reigned as the "Typical '49ers" at the Gold Digger's Drag held in March. The gymnasium was dubbed the Gold Nugget Ranch and those who attended the dance were garbed in the outfits worn by their great-grandparents some one hundred years ago. Bill Dunn's band furnished the music, along with the floor show, of which Dale Johnson was master of ceremonies. "Pike's Peak Or Bust!!"

The Girl's Athletic Association, known as G.A.A., has done well in 1948 and 1949, even though the sponsor has been a new teacher at Warren, Mrs. Edna Hurst, also girl's physical education instructor. Basketball, volleyball, and other sports occupied the time of these healthy sophomores, juniors and seniors. Marilyn Stevens served as president, being elected when Barbara Frakes resigned. Other officers were Dorothy Lucas, Diana Polk, and Joan Daringer.

Warren's footballers enjoyed a successful season although they didn't win the county championship. They won their first five games before being upset by the Lawrence Central Bears, and then finished the season with a loss to the city champion Broad Ripple squad and a 0-0 tie with Howe.

The 21-19 upset by Lawrence brought an end to the Warren's county title hopes and forced them into third place in the county behind Speedway and Lawrence.

Two of Warren's players, Herb Rosemeyer and Ed Wieland, were both outstanding choices for the all-county team. Rosemeyer showed an ability to catch passes thrown by both teams, while Wieland stood out with his line-plunging from the fullback post.

Ten of the eleven starters last season were playing their last year for Warren.

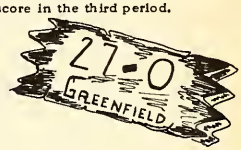
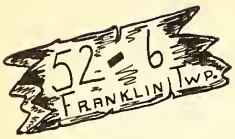
Wood's Warriors made a successful season start on Southport's gridiron whipping the Cardinals 18-0. End Herb Rosemeyer made a 20 yard touchdown run on a pass from fullback Ed Wieland and scored another six late in the first half, on a 60-yard interception run back. Walt Curran plowed through center to pay dirt for the game's final score in the third period.



Warren's eleven rampaged on home turf against Greenfield's yearlings with a touchdown in each quarter, and a 27-0 win. Each of the Warrior backfield starters; quarterback Miedema, half-backs Bobenmoyer and Curran, and full back Wieland made a touchdown.

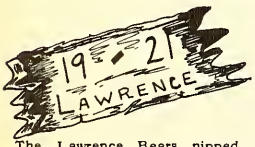
The Ben Davis Giants fell 12-0 on the Warren Central Gridiron, for the Warrior gridders' third consecutive victory of the season. Both touchdowns were scored in the first half, the first by Herb Rosemeyer and Keith Bobenmoyer scored the second.

Seein' these Seniors fur the last time makes us kind a sad, eh?



Warren's stout gridmen swamped the Franklin Township team 52-6 in the third contest under Warren's lights this season. The Flashes loosed a late fourth-period scoring play on a thirty-yard run by Dick Copeland, for the first touchdown of the year against Warren.

A 32-0 win over Beech Grove on Warren's field made it five straight for Vaughn Wood's huskies. Ed Wieland made three spectacular touchdown runs of 15,40 and 50 yards. Keith Bobenmoyer crossed the goal line on a 79-yard jaunt and Al Miedema topped off the scoring with a 29-yard run.



The Lawrence Bears nipped Warren's county championship hopes on the Lawrence gridiron October 15. The Bears stalled Warrior offense behind their own goal-line early in the first quarter for the two point safety that gave them their 21-19 victory, Warren's first defeat of the season. Lawrence scored all three of their touchdowns on passes. Ed Wieland hit pay dirt twice for the Warriors, Keith Bobenmoyer scored once.

Ed Wieland kicks off as Kenny Winings holds.

The pitchur o the team fur next season

The northside city grid champs of Broad Ripple High accounted for Warren's second defeat, in the '43 campaign as all-state fullback, Don Klingler, combined forces with aure-toed Bob Stephens and a strong forward wall to chalk up a 33-0 win.

Coach Wood's cleatsers completed their eight-game schedule under home lights, in a defensive duel with Howe's eleven that ended in a scoreless tie. The stalemate ended Howe's two year winning streak over Warren on the gridiron and made the all-time record three victories for Warren, two for Howe, and one tie.

The picture below shows action in one of the home games at Warren. The Warriors dropped only one of six home encounters, to Lawrence, but defeated Manual, Beech Grove, Speedway, Greenfield and Broad Ripple.

The picture at the right shows Ed Wieland shooting a gratis toss in the opener at Warren against Lawrence. Warren lost three of four games to the Bears this season, but the 56-37 trouncing handed Lawrence in the County Tourney made up for the defeats.

Basketball's a x'citin' sport - - 'specially when ya got a bag of popcorn!

The '48-'49 Black and Gold hardwood department under Coach Ralph Clevenger's supervision kept Warren Central's basketball fans on the edge of their seats an entire season, from November 19 to the Sectional tournament in February.

The Warriors won 12 and lost 10 games last season as the squad stacked up an all time school record in offense with a 1,017 point total and a 46.3 average. Warren Central's former season offense record was 930 points scored during the '46-'47 campaign.

Coach Clevenger's boys, though turning out a successful season, were plagued by the "finals blues" in two of their three seasons' net tournaments.

Above are the Warriors and their coach following their 52-37 victory over Franklin Township in the semi-finals of the county tourney.

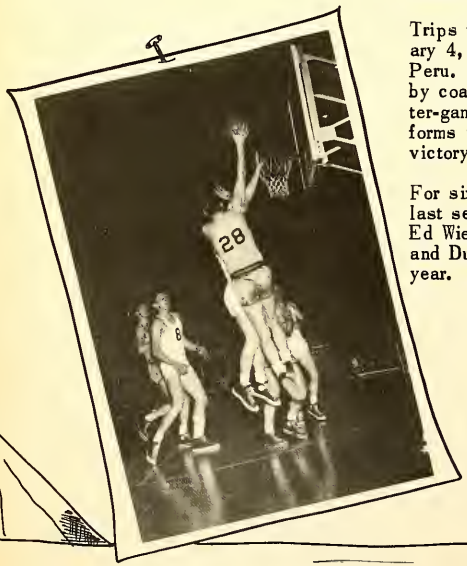
A strong Lebanon quintet edged the Warrior netmen out of a Christmas tourney crown – after Warren had downed Flora's five in the afternoon opener.

The Warriors launched a brilliant hardwood display in the county tourney with a 56-37 victory over Lawrence and a 52-37 win over Franklin Township only to finish close second 37-35, in the final game to Speedway in a heartbreaking double-overtime loss.

The Warriors lost their season opener on home hardwood to Lawrence's charmed Bears but swept their remaining five visiting opponents to defeat.

Trips to Lebanon and Peru highlighted Warren's road campaign. On January 4, following the Christmas holidays, the Warriors traveled by bus to Peru. Both the varsity and the reserve squads made the trip accompanied by coaches Clevenger and Payne. The boys ate in Kokomo and had an after-game dinner in Peru. The trip also financed new white and gold uniforms which the Warriors initiated against Greenfield in their third home victory 62-61.

For six members of Ralph Clevenger's thirteenth Warrior basketball team, last season marked finis to their high school court-careers. Bill Deer and Ed Wieland, the big boys under the boards, with their rebounds and tip-ins, and Duane Bruhn with his unique lay-in shots will be missed up front next year.



Al Miedema won't be around to hit those long ones or his frequent follow-in buckets. Someone else will have to engineer plays and master the pass-off to fill George Ostheimer's guard post, and Herb Rosemeyer's offensive drive and ball-hawking must be replaced.

The best possible wish that could be made for Warren Central's future basketball teams would be that each player might possess the qualities of fine sportsmanship, competitive spirit, and determination to win, that the aforementioned six boys exhibited throughout the entire season of 1948 and '49.

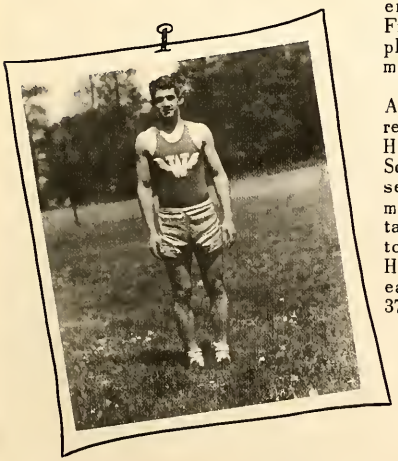
Jumpin'... Runnin'... all in a day's work.

Coach Walter Mowrey's cross country squad successfully defended its Marion County cross country championship at Ben Davis, October 13. Warren had 32 points, Ben Davis 42, and Lawrence Central 46.

Senior Marvin Schilling won the individual honors and John Frederick took third for the Warriors in the county meet. Bob Klise, John Reilly, and Dave Willian garnered the remaining three places for Warren, by finishing sixth, ninth, and thirteenth respectively. Ronald Piel and Charlie Whiteside also ran.

In dual meets, Warren lost to both Ben Davis and Lawrence Central. Against Ben Davis, John Frederick finished first, but the Warriors could not compile enough balance to win. Frederick also won first place in the Lawrence meet.

Against city schools, Warren lost to Washington and Howe. Frederick and Schilling won first and second in the Washington meet, but the Continentals had enough balance to win by a 25-30 count. Howe's city champions easily defeated Warren 18-37.



There's a silver lining to every cloud,
But sometimes the edges are kinda ragged!

As you come to the end of this annual it is our desire that as you close its covers you will remember that you, too, are closing the doors to another year in your young lives. Ardently we hope that this has been a journey which has been the fulfillment of many dreams.

In years to come may this record of your 1949 school days recall your activities as vividly as it does today. . . . . and now as the horizon lies before us, Sasse, you and I will pass over the ridge and leave to the underclassmen the opportunity for still greater achievements . . . . .
